made out of defendant's estate. Per marshal's report of November 1848.

In this case suits were commenced in the district of New York against the principal, and in Michigan against the sureties, for the recovery of the amount designated. It was found more convenient for the witnesses to attend at Detroit, and, by mutual consent, agreed that the suit should be tried there; the suit instituted in New York was discontinued. At July term, 1844, of the circuit court, the case was tried, and the district attorney, by letter of the 15th August, 1844, reports that various offsets were pleaded and allowed by court and jury, and judgment rendered in favor of the United States for $9,965 35 against the sureties. The district attorney further reports, that, after a full and mature consideration, he is satisfied that the rulings of the court were correct, and the finding of the jury in accordance with the same—he being of the opinion that nothing would be gained by prosecuting an appeal, in which my predecessor concurred. The above judgment must be regarded as final, and the judicial ascertainment of Mr. Schoolcraft's debt. On the 7th March, 1845, an agreement was entered into by my predecessor and the sureties, by which it was stipulated that an execution should issue and be levied on certain real and personal property therein mentioned, should be sold, and payments made upon the following terms, viz: One-third cash, and the residue upon a credit of one, two, and three years; the pro-

Recently, viz: on the 21st November, 1848, the district attorney was inquired of whether the judgment had been collected? If not, whether an execution had been issued? To which he replied that no money was collected, but that an execution had been issued, &c.

No.	Names.	Amount.	Comptroller's remarks.	Remarks of the Solicitor.
1	Robert S. Smith	$1,966 43	Amount reduced to $1,728 74, which is now in suit.	The transcript of account in this case was transmitted to the district attorney on the 24th July, 1845, by the Solicitor "ad interim," for suit. No information having been received from the district attorney as to the action in the case, he was addressed on the subject the 13th May, 1848, and more recent—on the 19th January, 1849; to neither of which letters has this office received an answer.
2	Noah A. Phelps.....	2,817 14	Reduced to $817 14.....	Suit was ordered the 24th July, 1845; instituted 9th August, 1845, and continued at the intervening terms of the district court until February term, 1846, when a verdict was rendered to the following effect, viz: In this case, the jury find that, on the 11th August, 1845, the defendant did owe to the United States, as in the declaration is alleged, the sum of..... $2,381 14 with interest thereon from the said 11th August, 1845, to 25th February, 1846—6 months and 14 days..... 74 68 2,455 82 On the last mentioned day, defendant paid into court for the plaintiffs' use 2,000 00 Which leaves a balance of..... 455 82 the jury find for the plaintiffs, to recover of the defendants said sum of $455 82, with costs, unless, by law, one of the defendants, Noah A. 2	Noah A. Phelps--Cont'd....	$2,817 14	Reduced to $817 14.....	which, if, by law, allowed to the defendants, then the defendants do not owe the plaintiffs the sum of $455 82; but there is now justly due to the defendants from the United States the sum of $868 53. The jury finding these facts, returned into this court this verdict, subject to the opinion of the court as to the law arising thereon. The verdict was deliberately prepared by the judge, and the jury, under the charge, rendered accordingly; and the final finding of the court was rendered at the term ending May 26, 1846, as follows, viz: On the special finding of the jury in this case, the judgment is, that the defendants do not owe the United States, but that the United States owe the defendants the sum of $868 53; costs to be taxed against the defendants up to the 25th February, 1846, that being the day on which the $2,000 were paid into court; execution to issue for costs, &c. The Solicitor addressed a letter to the district attorney on the 10th June, 1846, remonstrating against the insufficiency of the report of the trial, &c., and requests that he will furnish this office, at the earliest day practicable, a full and explicit report of the whole matter, including the rulings of the court, reserved and excepted to, and the steps taken to correct the mistake in the amount of commission allowed by special verdict. The district attorney, by letter of the 23d September, 1846, advises that a motion for a new trial was prepared on the ground of mistake, &c., the defendant came before the judge and proposed to remit to the extent of the mistake, if it existed; that he should take the papers and rectify the whole, &c. All the papers are now in his possession, and, so soon as they are returned, a particular report will be furnished.

The district attorney, by letter of March 23, 1846, advises that judgment was rendered against Gantt and his sureties, W. S. Harding and James Smith, in solido, for $21,605 97, with interest. An agreement of settlement has been made with Mr. Harding, that he will pay the district attorney in cash, upon the signing said agreement, the sum of $4,247 27, being made up as follows, to wit: one-sixth of the judgment, $3,600 99, interest thereon at the rate of 6 per cent. from June 1, 1845, to June 1, 1847, $540 15, including costs, making in the whole the aforesaid sum of $4,247 27; that within 60 days from June 1, 1847, the said Harding will pay the said district attorney $2,592 70, being the remainder of the interest due on the judgment up to the said 1st of June; or, in default of payment within 60 days, he will deliver to the said attorney his note, drawn to his own order, and payable June 1, 1848, for $3,889 05, being the amount due of interest on the judgment up to June 1, 1848, less the sum $540 15, now paid; and that he has executed and delivered his five promissory notes drawn to his own order, and payable at the office of the district attorney of Louisiana, in the city of New Orleans—the first payable June 1, 1848, for $3,830 79; the second payable June 1, 1849, for $4,091 92; the third payable June 1, 1850, for $4,391 54; the fourth payable June 1, 1851, for $4,738 12; the fifth payable June 1, 1852, for $5,144 20. Should the said Harding not be able to pay the sum spoken of within 60 days, then, and in that case, he will furnish the district attorney with a note for $3,889 05, payable June 1, 1848, the judgment to remain in full force and vigor, with all its liens unimpaired, with each of the above notes, shall be paid June 12, 1847. The receipt of the assistant treasurer of the United States at New Orleans, for $4,151 14, was transmitted to the First Comptroller, directing the account of Mr. Gantt to be credited with the amount.
